DEFINITIONS OF “LEADERSHIP”

STATE OFFICERS

ALEX GALLEGO—
PRESIDENT

Leadership to me is a personal sacrifice to help others. The reason why I love leadership is because I don't mind giving up my time for others because of the reward. The feeling that you get after you know that you have helped someone and have helped shape their future, is irreplaceable.

DEANNA CAFONE—VICE PRESIDENT

Leadership, to me, is setting a good example for my peers. It is all about taking risks and knowing the chances.

MADISON WATERFIELD—SECRETARY

Leadership is the sum of many bold acts. Leadership is helping others, respecting others, and cooperating with others, while all striving towards a common goal. A good leader always take initiative and is someone people can place their trust in, and look to for advice.

“LEADERSHIP IS...”

CHRISTIAN TRUGLIO -
TREASURER

Leadership isn't what a person does, but what a person inspires. A good leader can inspire people to participate in a positive movement, making a long lasting difference.

CHRIS SALEMME - CHARITY

For me, being a leader is know when to motivate others, and let them motivate themselves. A good leader will always listen to those around and will face any challenge he or she faces. Instead of complaining, a leader will be the change they want to see in the world.

KAYELEIGH MALLON - PUBLICATIONS

Leadership is taking initiative when no one else wants to.

Its about standing out and standing up for what you believe in. Taking matters into your own hands, and choosing to be a leader, not a follower.

SAMANTHA BERK -
SPECIAL PROJECTS

Leadership is a quality that demonstrates strength along with knowledge. Leaders help to shape others and provides them with a focus towards the right direction.

DEVON MCRIMMON -
BOARD OF ED. REP.

Leadership is way more then the way a person acts in front of others. It really is a lifestyle, not something you try out for a day. Just like everything else, it takes practice. Experiences like LTC give you this kind of practice.

MADISON BROWN -
MIDDLE LEVEL REP

Leadership to me is having the courage to stand out, to be different, and to be yourself. It is to be cheerful, creative, and enthusiastic. “Time and neutral does not change things. With courage and initiative, leaders can change things,” –Jesse Jackson

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS

JEN PACEK

To me, leadership is not being afraid to stand out in a crowd. It is being yourself and showing others that you take pride in who you really are. You are willing to go the extra mile and make a difference in the world. Leadership is working together to make something extraordinary happen.

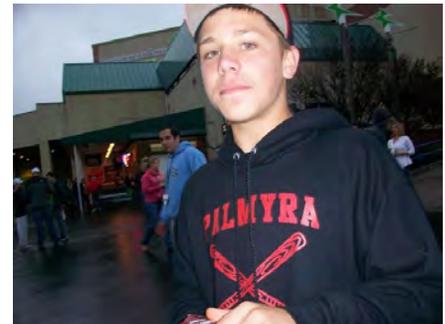

NICK NAHRWOLD

Leadership to me is knowing when to step in and help out and knowing when to allow others to lead themselves.

AMAN SHAH

Leadership is amazing because not only do you learn from others, but you learn from yourself. Being able to inspire others to do great things, is a really good feeling.

LEADERSHIP TO NJ'S EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS...

WENDY BOOTH SITZLER

Leadership is something that we ALL have within us—while some may have more of it than others, we ALL do have it. However, it is entirely up to you to develop, nurture, and put it to good use.

“Lead, follow, or get out of the way.” - Lee Iacocca

LOU MILLER

Two U.S. Presidents summed up leadership very well...

“Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because they want to do it.” Dwight Eisenhower

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, become more, then you are a leader.” John Quincy Adams
