

The LTC Ledger

NJASC

What skills do you hope to obtain by attending LTC? July 15, 2010
Session 1 Issue 1

I hope to gain and bring back to my school speaking skills and how to effectively communicate with others so I can be a better leader.

Hannah (1st Delegate)
Readington Middle School

DEFINITIONS OF "LEADERSHIP" STATE OFFICERS

President

Stephen Desilets

Leadership means collaborating with others to achieve something great...something that could never be completed alone.

Vice President

Sam Campbell

Leadership is finding what makes you happy and going the extra mile to share it with others..

Russell Bauer
Middle Level Representative

Leadership is not something acquired, leadership is a born characteristic. You must be able to organize many tasks. You know that you are leader when you can safely coordinate 30 people down a three story rock cliff.

“Leadership to me is...”

Sergio Ingato
Executive Member of State Charity

Dwight D. Eisenhower “Leadership is the art of getting people to do what you want done, because they want to do it.”

Mary Furgione
Executive Member of
Special Projects

Leadership is taking time to help others, it is finding something that you're passionate about and getting your community to share the experience.

Rajhon White Executive Member of Publications

Leadership to me is buckling
up and driving
in the right direction while everyone else is driving in the wrong direction.

Tabitha Nicodemus
State Board of Ed. Rep

Leadership.
JUST DO IT!

Nick Nahrwold
Treasurer

Leadership isn't what a person does, but what a person inspires to be. Instead of complaining, a leader will be the change they want to see.
in the world.

Secretary
Aisya Wilson

Leadership is being able to follow & learn then using knowledge and experience to take strides towards change & excellence. It is standing when no one is willing.

What Leadership means to NJ's Executive Directors !!

Mrs. Wendy Booth Sitzler

Leadership is something that we ALL have within us—while some may have more of it than others, we ALL do have it. However, it is entirely up to you to develop, nurture, and put it to good use.

“Lead, follow, or get out of the way.” - Lee Iacocca

Mr. Lou Miller

Once you believe – and you get others to believe – with hard work and dedication, things fall into place.

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, become more, then you are a leader.” - John Quincy Adams

Administrative Assistants

Nick Cannizzaro

Leadership, to me, is setting a good example for my peers. It is all about taking risks and knowing the chances.

Jen Pacek

Leadership is the act to G.I.V.E. to others

Aman Shah

To me leadership is defined as having the ability to instill passion and confidence in the people around you. Leadership is not defined by your title but by your actions!

Aly Sperock

Leadership is being the change instead of watching the change.
